National Intergovernmental Audit Forum

441 G Street NW
Room 7814
Washington DC 20548

2018 David M. Walker Award Nominations

I. Nominees by Government Level

Federal

1. Elliot P. Lewis, Assistant Inspector General for Audit, Office of the Inspector General, U.S. Department of Labor (DOL)

2. John F. Sopko, Inspector General, Special Inspector General for Afghanistan Reconstruction (SIGAR)

State

1. Tina Kim, Deputy Comptroller, Division of State Government Accountability, New York State Comptroller Office

Local

1. Jorge Oseguera, City Auditor, City of Sacramento, CA

2. Harriet Richardson, City Auditor, Berkeley, CA

3. Kymber Waltmunson, County Auditor, King County, WA

II. Nomination Criteria

Criteria #1: Demonstrated Leadership

List ways in which nominee has demonstrated leadership to improve government performance and accountability, including contributions toward successful intergovernmental or public/private partnerships.

Criteria #2: Innovation

Identify examples of nominee's results from innovative techniques to transform government organizations and create a positive future for governments and the audit profession.

Criteria #3: Adherence to NIAF Core Values

List ways in which nominee has demonstrated adherence to the NIAF core values of collaboration, professionalism, and integrity.