Course Outline This session will begin with Mr. Hood discussing Auditing Compliance with MS Ethics Laws. The auditor will gain a better understanding of ethics as it applies to governmental officials. This 2 hour session will provide useful information to auditors as they perform compliance test with state laws. Mr. Crawford’s 6 hour session will begin at 10:30 and will provide an “up-close” look at many of the changes that will be applicable to fiscal year 2006 financial statements. GASB Statements’ 42 through 48 and beyond will be reviewed closely, along with updates on current exposure drafts and other items of interest. On the auditing front, a new Yellow Book exposure draft will be highlighted, along with recent significant changes to the AICPA auditing standards, focusing specifically on SAS 102, 103 and 112, along with a quick overview of the new audit risk standards.
